Top Ten Games And Activities to Liven Up Your Language Class

Do you find yourself in a rut doing the same activities over and over again? Do you wish your students were excited to learn a foreign language? Spice up your language class with activities and games that will get your students moving, talking and having fun. We will share our top ten activities that will be mostly kinesthetic and will include games and technology, such as sites, speaking assessments and more. Join us and bring the enthusiasm, energy and eagerness to learn back into your class!
